Miramichi, NB

Property Details

One of Miramichi's finest Queen Anne style Home, it has undergone high quality restoration, reinstating this unique property back to its former glory by the present owners. Built around the turn of the Century by a wood merchant, Mr. John Miller, it was the home of the well-known Creaghen family for several generations.

The property and garage are located on a large downtown lot and surrounded by other properties of the same period.

All within walking distance, the area offers: Ritchi's Warf, Miramichi River, Strawberry Marsh Conservation Area, shops, banks, schools, and churches. Short drive to French Fort Cove Park (hiking, mountain biking), cross-country skiing, salmon fly-fishing in the famous Miramichi River and 25 minutes from beautiful sandy beaches.
